Pronouns

כינויי גוף الضمائر

אנו משתמשים בכינוי גוף כנושא המשפט אחרי שכבר הזכרנו את שם העצם אליו הוא מתייחס.

כשאנו כותבים, חשוב להשתמש בכינויי גוף במקום לחזור שוב על שם העצם, אחרת הטקסט יוצא כבד ומסורבל.

عندما نكتب، من المهم أن نستخدم الضمائر بدلاً من أن نكرر الاسم، وإلا سيكون النص ثقیلاً أو غير سلس.

Rewrite the text below. Use personal subject pronouns where needed.

שכתבו את הטקסט הבא. כתבו כינויי גוף כנושא המשפט היכן שצריך.

כפי שאתם רואים, לכינויי גוף אלה יש הרבה פירושים. הפירוש תלוי בהקשר - במשפט או בפסקה בהם מופיע כינוי הגוף. בעברית, לעומת זאת, לכל כינוי גוף יש פירוש אחד בלבד.

4 שימו לב! לשמות עצם בהם הצליל של u הוא /יו/ (כמו university), אנו מוסיפים a ולא an.
 4 انتبهوا! الأسماء التي يُلَفَّظُ بها حرف u مثلما يُكْتَب (يو)، كما في كلمة (university) مثلاً، نضيف a وليس an.

5 כאשר יש שם תואר לפני שם העצם ביחיד, ושם התואר מתחיל באות תנועה, נוסיף an לפניו.
 5 عندما تكون هناك صفة قبل الاسم المفرد، والصفة تبدأ بحرف صوتי، نضيف قبلها an.

Something useful

Many teens have jobs, but they do not get any money for their work. They do it because they want to help people or animals.

"I want to do something useful with my time," says Daniel (16). Daniel helps children with special needs¹. "I play with the children and tell them stories," Daniel says. "They are always happy to see me. I like what I'm doing. It's important to help these children."

Alison (17) helps elderly people. "I visit people who don't have a family," she says. "I talk to them and listen to their stories. These people are lonely². I'm happy to be their friend."

UP Guy (16) goes to an animal shelter every afternoon. There is a cat room in the shelter. There are toys, brushes and cookies there. Guy's job is to take the cats to the cat room and play with them. A MAN WITH A DREAM

Part One

I have a dream. I have a plan of action too. Let me tell you about it.

VIOLENCE IN FOOTBALL

Dave: There is an important football match¹ on Sunday. The Pumas are playing the Gorillas. My dad is going to buy tickets. Do you want to come with us?

Ed: I don't like to go to football matches.

Dave: Why? Don't you like sports?

5 Ed: Of course I do. I like to go to basketball matches.

Dave: Football and basketball have a lot in common.

Ed: A lot? I don't think so. In both games, there are two teams that play with a ball, and each team has many fans. That's what football and basketball have in common. That's all! As I see it, the games are very different.

10 Dave: Oh, well... In football you kick a ball and in basketball you throw a ball.

Ed: No, I mean that the games are different because of the fans. In football, the fans often start fighting. Many football matches end in violence.

Dave: Doesn't this happen in basketball?

15 Ed: No, it doesn't. The fans sing and cheer, but there is no violence in basketball matches.

Dave: Do you know why?

Ed: Nobody knows why.

Dave: So I understand that you are not coming with us because you don't like football.

20 Ed: No, I'm not coming because of the violent fans. But I'll watch the game on television. I hope your team wins. You're a fan of the Pumas, right?

Words have power¹. Words can make you² or break you.

When you are sad and someone says (1) kind / angry words to you, such as³, “Tell me what’s wrong” or “How can I help?”, it makes you (2) fall / feel better. Kind words also (3) learn / teach you to be kind to others.

Words of praise⁴ are (4) powerful / cruel too. They make you feel (5) strong / weak. When someone tells you, “Great job!” or “Well done!”, you (6) believe in / give up on yourself and keep trying to do well⁵.

Angry words, on the other hand⁶, hurt your feelings and (7) leave / live scars in your (8) body / soul. It is hard to (9) remember / forget them. Words that put you down⁷, such as, “You are not smart. You can never do anything right!” make you feel (10) tough / weak. You (11) stop / go on believing in yourself and give up trying.

So be (12) careful / sure how you use words.

Think before you speak!

How to Control Your Anger

Part One

Sometimes you get angry. It’s okay. Everyone gets angry. Anger can be a good thing. If bullies pick on you, for example, anger can help you stand up for yourself. Anger can also help you fight for your rights.

Many things can make you angry. When you don’t understand your homework, you
5 get angry. When your team loses an important game, you get angry.

It’s okay to feel anger, but it’s not okay to yell, kick, hit or use angry words when you are angry. Taking it out on others does not solve anything, anyway.

Try to understand why you are angry. If you have a problem, try to solve it. For 10 example, if your math homework is too hard, don’t yell at your brother or sister. Ask the teacher or a parent for help.

It helps to talk about your anger. When you tell someone why you are angry, those bad feelings start to go away.

Don’t let anger be the boss of you! Control your anger!
